EVALUATION OF EFFECTIVENESS:

The Soviets continue to attack the Ukrainian "bourgeois nationalist". The following is an excerpt from an address by Comrade M.V. Pidhorny delivered at the solemn plenum of the CC CP Ukraine on 5 July 1958 and appearing in the 7 July 1958 issue of RADYANSKA UKRAINA:

"We are aware even today that the imperialists in their deceitful aims to detach Ukraine from the Soviet Union and to enslave her freedom-loving people, take advantage of the remnants of dispersed Ukrainian bourgeois people.....The Ukrainian bourgeois nationalists have never had the slightest support from the people, and finding themselves abroad, they play the despicable role of tools of international imperialism being its paid agents."

Excerpt from H. Yemelyanenko's comments on CELEBRATION OF LENIN'S NATIONAL POLICY OF THE COMMUNIST PARTY, appearing in the No. 6, June 1958 issue of KOMUNIST UKRAINY.

"The Ukrainian bourgeois nationalists opposed those prime principles of freedom and independence of our nation, and attempted to turn Ukraine onto the road of capitalist development by making it a colony of international imperialism. They counterpoised Ukrainian culture to Russian culture, and proclaimed the counter-revolutionary motto Away from Moscow-for unity with Europe."

Noting the appearance of a book in French by the Ukrainian scholar of international law residing in France, Dr. Vasyl MARKUS, L'INCORPORATION DE L'UKRAINE SUBCARPATHIQUE A L'UKRAINE SOVIETIQUE, the 27 June 1958 issue of RADYANSKA UKRAINA attacked the author for allegedly insulting the Soviet Union and serving the interests of the Western powers.

The following was taken from a monitoring of the 5-9 and 19 June 1958 East Berlin Committee for Return to the Homeland:

Translation: Anti-Soviet bourgeois nationalist bands continue their work. Specifically, here is what one of our countrymen who, like Ivanov, lived in Western Germany, writes in a letter. It was my misfortune on foreign soil to experience many difficulties and to be an eye witness of the many crimes which are committed by the Bandera bandits in persecuting our compatriots who desired to return to their home country. In December 1956, in Clifton, Banderites Mykola Lywysky and Edward Shkol'nyk attacked our compatriot Ivanov and beat him with beer bottles because he visited the consulate and expressed a desire to return to his fatherland. A more tragic event took place in the city of Kirzell (sic). Here the Banderite prank was under the direction of Ramenyuk and Matula. Having learned that our countryman Samiylo was preparing to leave Western Germany for his home city of Dnepopetrovsk, they pushed him from the fourth floor. German police investigated this murder for a whole year but, instead of working toward a just trial, they aided the criminals. Professor Petrov, who lived in Munich for many years, also paid with his life for his desire to return to his beloved Ukraine. In the villages and cities of Western Germany where our compatriots live, the Banderites, through their agents control all correspondence of the Ukrainians. Specifically, they are interested in those letters coming from the Soviet Ukraine. In the city of Duisburg, on Wannheimer Str. 389, there live about 30 Ukrainians. Their mail is controlled by Banderite Andrew Didykh, and in the village of Kliben' (sic), by Volodymyr Soroka. In Essen-Kreis our countrymen receive their mail only after it has been censored by Banderite Hlosnuchenko. The Banderites fear even more than fire having the truth about the happy life of our compatriots after their return to the homeland reach the West. But, however hard the Ukrainian bourgeois nationalists try, they will not succeed in frightening, in hiding the truth or in preventing our countrymen from returning to their dear Ukraine, because the desire to escape from Capitalist shackles and leave the foreign land is stronger than the fear of death.
